

Privacy Policy

As part of our responsibilities as a provider of Financial Services, the Macey Group has a duty to protect your personal information. We therefore undertake to comply with the National Privacy Principles (NPPs) set out in the Federal Privacy Act, administered by the Federal Privacy Commissioner.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information is essentially information or an opinion about an individual whose identity is apparent or can be reasonably ascertained from the information or opinion.

WHY WE NEED YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The type of information we collect from you will depend on what Macey Group Products and Services you require.

By collecting personal information we:

- determine your requirements and provide the appropriate product or service
- assess your product or service needs
- set up and administer products and services
- improve our products and services which may include providing you with information.
- identify you and protect you from unauthorised access to your personal information

Where possible we collect your personal information directly from you. Occasionally personal information may be collected about you from other sources. For example, Past Insurers, Witnesses to claims, publicly available sources etc.

HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION

We have a duty to maintain the confidentiality of our client's affairs, including personal information. Our duty of confidentiality applies except where disclosure of your personal information is with your consent or compelled by law.

We do not use or disclose personal information for any purpose that is unrelated to our services and that you would not reasonably expect.

We usually disclose personal information to third parties who assist us or are involved in the provision of our services. For example Insurers, Loss Assessors, Fund Managers, Travel Providers etc. We take reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up-to-date whenever we collect or use or disclose it to third parties.

If we do not collect and make use of your personal information, we are unable to do business with you.

WHAT WE EXPECT OF YOU AND THIRD PARTIES WE DEAL WITH

When you provide us with personal information about other individuals, we rely on you to have made them aware that you will or may provide their information to us, the purpose we use it for, the types of third parties we disclose it to and how they can access it (as described in this document). If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent to the above. If you have not done either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

If we give you personal information, you and your representatives must only use it for the purposes intended. Where relevant, you must meet the requirements of the National Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988, when collecting, using, disclosing and handling personal information on our behalf. You must also ensure that your agents, employees and contractors meet the above requirements.

SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We endeavour to protect any personal information that we hold from misuse and loss, and to protect it from unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.

TRANSFER OF INFORMATION OVERSEAS

We may transfer your personal information overseas where it is necessary to provide our services.

OPTING OUT

If we send you any information about services or products and you do not wish to receive such information, you can opt out by telephoning The Privacy Officer on (02) 4421 5055 during business hours.
