OTHER REMUNERATION INFORMATION

For each insurance product the insurer will charge a premium that includes any relevant taxes, charges, and levies. We often receive a payment based on a percentage of this premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges, and levies) called commission, which is paid to us by the insurers. However, in most cases we will also charge you a fee. You may also be charged an administration fee. This fee will be in addition to the broker fee and commission. The administration fee will be charged to cover the regulatory costs attributable to the services we provide. These will all be shown on the invoice that we send you.

You can choose to pay by any of the payment methods set out on the invoice. You are required to pay us within the time set out on the invoice.

If there is a refund or reduction of your premium as a result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy or based on a term of your policy (such as a premium adjustment provision), we will retain any fee we have charged you. We will also retain commission depending on our arrangements with the insurer or charge you a cancellation fee equal to the reduction in our commission.

When you pay us your premium it will be banked into our trust account. We retain the commission from the premium you pay us and remit the balance to the insurer in accordance with our arrangements with the insurer.

Your risk. Our business.

We will earn interest on the premium while it is in our trust account, or we may invest the premium and earn a return. We will retain any interest or return on investment earned on the premium.

HOW ARE WE PAID FOR THE SERVICES PROVIDED?

We may be paid in a number of ways which vary according to the service you require and our arrangement with the relevant insurer. Unless we tell you otherwise, we are remunerated by commission from the relevant insurer whenever you enter into an insurance policy arranged by us (including renewal and some variations).

The commission is a percentage of the insurer's base premium (i.e. premium excluding stamp duty, fire services levy, GST or any other government charges, taxes, fees or levies). The rate ranges between 0 and 27%. The commission rate does not represent our profit margin as it also reimburses us for administrative and other expenses we incur in retailing the product on behalf of the insurer including the cost of performing the distribution functions such as data entry, marketing, annual renewal marketing and underwriting.

We may charge you an administration fee in addition to commission when you enter into, renew or vary an insurance policy. For retail clients our fee would typically be in the range of 0-5% of the insurer's base premium and would depend upon the type and complexity of the product arranged and the amount of commission received from the product supplier.

Our employees that will assist you with your insurance needs will be paid a market salary and may also receive a performance bonus based on both the value and quality of the work they do for our clients.

If we give you personal advice, we will inform you of any fees, commission or other payments (in dollar terms) we, our associates or anyone referring you to us (or us to any insurer) will receive in relation to the policies that are the subject of the advice. See below for information on the Steadfast association and commission.

PREMIUM FUNDING

If we arrange premium funding for you, we may be paid a commission by the premium funder. The commission that we are paid by the premium funder is usually calculated as a percentage of your insurance premium (including government fees or charges). If you instruct us to arrange or issue a product, this is when we become entitled to the commission.

Our commission rates for premium funding are in the range of 0% to 4.5% of funded premium. When we arrange premium funding for you, you can ask us what commission rates we are paid for that funding arrangement compared to the other arrangements that were available to you.

We are covered under a Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy that we believe meets the requirements of Section 912B of the Corporations Act.

HOW DO WE MANAGE CONFLICTS OF INTEREST?

A key conflict faced when we act on your behalf is where we receive benefits from someone other than you – this can potentially influence us to act in their or our interests rather than yours.

Where we arrange a policy, an insurer can pay us commission (see above for details). It is the major form of insurance broker remuneration and can create a potential conflict of interest. We have a number of procedures in place to manage this potential conflict of interest. For example, we tell you about this remuneration arrangement in this Guide and you can ask for more detailed information if you need it before you proceed.

Where we provide personal advice on your behalf, we have a legal duty as a professional to put your interests ahead of our own and can only provide you with advice that is appropriate for you having regard to the scope of advice agreed with you. We will contact you in a timely manner if we identify that there is, or is likely to be, a conflict in your best interests and will only continue to provide services to you with your consent.

Where there are potential conflicts of interest in our remuneration arrangements or our dealings with related parties, they are managed in accordance with our Conflicts of Interest Policy which all staff and representatives must comply with. If we cannot provide services to you due to a conflict of interest that cannot be managed, we will notify you immediately.

Envest have an interest in a number of Underwriting Agencies and Wholesale Brokers. We may place your insurance through one of these insurer partners. Any placement will be on arms-length terms but in effecting the contract of insurance the underwriting agencies and wholesale brokers may be acting under a binding authority granted by the insurer. We will receive commission from these underwriting agencies and wholesale brokers insurer partners as payment for the placement of the policy. Wholesale Brokers are intermediaries who have access to certain insurance facilities. We refer you to the Envest website for further details on all related companies at: www.envest.com.au
